Alma Mater

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward
Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth,
Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—
Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth.
Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished;
Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true;
Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—
Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

The University Mace & Batons
The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

Marshals' Gowns
The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

Honor Stoles
White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

The University Song
In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, 1906, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H.D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

Academic Regalia
The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue - Ph.D; light blue - Ed.D). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white. The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

The University Seal
The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.
Doug McMillon is a lifelong merchant who has dedicated his career to bringing products and services to customers and members to help them save money and live a better life. Today, he and his team are building the world’s leading people-led, techpowered omnichannel retailer that’s dedicated to this purpose.

Doug began his Walmart career as an hourly associate unloading trailers and his commitment to his fellow associates is ongoing. Under his leadership as president and CEO, Walmart is investing heavily in wages, benefits and education—including a debt-free college program and an expanded parental leave policy. During his tenure, the company also set an aspirational goal to become a regenerative company and launched ambitious work such as Project Gigaton to combat climate change and work with suppliers to avoid 1 billion metric tons of emissions worldwide.

He was named president and CEO in 2014. From 2009 to 2014 he was president and CEO of Walmart International, and from 2005 to 2009 he served as president and CEO of Sam’s Club. He has worked at Walmart for more than 30 years serving in senior leadership roles in all of Walmart’s business segments.

Doug serves on the boards of directors of Business Roundtable, the Consumer Goods Forum and the U.S.-China Business Council. He also sits on the advisory board of the Tsinghua University School of Economics and Management in Beijing, China.

Originally from Jonesboro, Arkansas, Doug graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor’s degree in business administration, and a master’s degree in business administration from the University of Tulsa.
Senator Mark Pryor earned a reputation on Capitol Hill as a “voice of reason” during his 12 years representing Arkansas in the United States Senate. He worked across the aisle to pass more than seventy pieces of legislation on a range of critical issues, from consumer protection and economic development to homeland security and defense. Senator Pryor served on several high-profile committees during his tenure, including Appropriations; Armed Services; Commerce, Science and Transportation; Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs; Rules and Administration; Small Business and Entrepreneurship; and the Select Committee on Ethics.

He began his career in public service when he was elected to the Arkansas House of Representatives in 1990. In 1998, he was elected attorney general of Arkansas, where he toughened laws against drunk drivers, enacted legislation to protect children on the Internet, prohibited unwanted telemarketing calls and helped establish an alert system to locate missing and exploited children.

Senator Pryor began his legal career working in private practice for more than 10 years and is currently back in private practice as a shareholder at the Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck law firm.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the Spring 2024 University of Arkansas Commencement ceremony a success.
Outstanding Alumna Award

Jennifer James

James is a fourth-generation rice, soybean and corn farmer from Newport. She is part owner of H&J Land Co., a diversified operation of row crops, grain warehouse and cleaning facility, as well as an automated container loading facility exporting specialty soybeans.

She earned her bachelor’s degree in agricultural business in 1994 and earned the college’s John W. White Outstanding Student Award.

James runs the business with husband Greg and her father Marvin, and the family is committed to providing overwinter habitat for waterfowl, and institutes practices to conserve natural resources. Their land has been recognized as an Arkansas Century Farm and in 1999 they were named Arkansas Farm Family of the Year.

In 2017, James was recognized by Field to Market: The Alliance for Sustainable Agriculture as the Farmer of the Year for the conservation efforts on her farm and her leadership in sustainability. At the 2019 USA Rice Outlook Conference, James received recognition as Rice Farmer of the Year; and was elected as the first woman to the Riceland Foods, Inc., Board of Directors. She currently serves as vice chair of the Arkansas Rice Farmers Board and was the first chair of the USA Rice Sustainability Committee, holding that position for 12 years. James, a 2012 graduate of The Executive Program for Agricultural Producers, is a member of the Merchants & Planters Bank Board of Directors as well as the St. Louis Federal Reserve Board Agribusiness Industry Council.

She and Greg have a son, Dylan, who has returned to the farm as the fifth generation.
Daniel McFarland is the service line administrator of the Digestive Health, Neurosciences and Spine Service Line at the Brigham and Women’s Hospital, one of the founding members of Mass General Brigham and teaching hospitals of Harvard Medical School. In this role, McFarland provides administrative, operational and strategic vision for the multidisciplinary clinical programs within his portfolio.

He earned his Bachelor’s of Science degree in animal science in 2015 and a Master of Health Administration from the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences in 2018.

At the U of A, McFarland served in a variety of leadership roles, including Associated Student Government student body president, Student Alumni Board senior advisor and homecoming director, animal science REPS member, assistant event coordinator for the Block and Bridle Club, a volunteer musician at Butterfield Trail Village Retirement Home and as a Student Advisory Board member for the Pat Walker Health Center.

While working on his master’s degree, he served as a summer resident at Baptist Memorial Health System in Memphis in 2017, was an administrative graduate assistant with Baptist Health in Little Rock in 2017-18 and was selected to be an Administrative Fellow with John Hopkins Medicine in Baltimore.

At Johns Hopkins, he began his administrative career serving as the administrative lead for the Pediatric & Congenital Heart Center and Adult Cardiac Surgery programs from 2020-22. He provided oversight of finances, operations and management of personnel; managed faculty practices and clinical resources; assisted in recruiting and retention of faculty and administrative staff in four divisions; created additional inpatient capacity for pediatric cardiac services; led expansion of ambulatory clinic offerings; and grew programs in the Pediatric Health Center and Adult Cardiac Service.

McFarland is from Keithville, Louisiana, and was a U of A Senior of Significance selected by the alumni association and was a Razorback Classic honoree.

Introduction of Speaker ................................................................. Peter MacKeith

Commencement Address ................................................................. Cathleen McGuigan

Cathleen McGuigan is the former editor-in-chief of Architectural Record, the nation's leading architecture publication for more than a century. Under her stewardship from 2011 to 2022, Record won numerous journalism honors, including the Grand Neal award, the top American Business Media award for overall excellence. After she took over in 2011, the magazine greatly expanded its presence online and on social media. In 2014, she created Record's annual Women in Architecture Design Leadership awards, the only honor of its kind in the United States.

A former architecture critic and arts editor of Newsweek, McGuigan has a BA from Brown University. She has taught at Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism and has been a Poynter Fellow at Yale. Besides Newsweek and Record, her articles have appeared in such publications as The New York Times Magazine, Smithsonian and Rolling Stone. She sits on the board of directors of The Skyscraper Museum in New York.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the Spring 2024 University of Arkansas Commencement ceremony a success.
Michelle Kamanga is graduating with Highest Distinction, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Art History. She has earned a 4.0 grade point average. During her time at the University of Arkansas she served as a Resident Assistant and then a Senior Resident Assistant, volunteered as an art teacher for Children’s International, and completed a study abroad program in Florence, Italy. She also completed a curatorial internship at the Art Bridges Foundation. She has been the recipient of eight different scholarships as an undergraduate.

Michelle grew up in Little Rock, Arkansas and has always loved art. She plans to continue her education here at the University of Arkansas as she has been accepted to the Master of Arts in Art History program. She hopes to study the African Diaspora in the Americas. Reflecting on her time on campus so far, she says that she truly values all of the connections she has made with faculty members and fellow students. When asked if she has any advice for current undergraduate students, she said “Get uncomfortable – this is the perfect time to get out there and try new things and meet new people!”

Dr. Fred Bonner II
Professor and Endowed Chair in Educational Leadership and Counseling and Executive Director and Chief Scientist of the MACH-III Center at Prairie View A&M University

Dr. Fred Bonner II is Professor and Endowed Chair in Educational Leadership and Counseling and Executive Director and Chief Scientist of the MACH-III Center at Prairie View A&M University. He was formerly the Samuel DeWitt Proctor Endowed Chair in Education in the Graduate School of Education at Rutgers University. Prior to joining Rutgers, he was Professor of Higher Education Administration and Associate Dean of Faculties at Texas A&M University-College Station. He earned a B.A. in chemistry from the University of North Texas, an M.S. Ed. in curriculum and instruction from Baylor University, and an Ed.D. in higher education administration & college teaching from the University of Arkansas.

Bonner is an esteemed expert in the field of diversity in education and has been the recipient of numerous awards, including the American Association for Higher Education Black Caucus Dissertation Award and the Educational Leadership, Counseling and Foundation’s Dissertation of the Year Award from the University of Arkansas College of Education and Health Professions. His work has been featured nationally and internationally. He is the author of several books, including Building on Resilience: Models and Frameworks of Black Male Success Across the P-20 Pipeline, as well as the recently released Square Pegs and Round Holes: Alternative Approaches to Diverse College Student Development Theory (2021, Stylus Publishing). In 2020, Bonner was named Texas A&M University System (TAMUS) Regents Professor.
The College of Education and Health Professions presents awards to outstanding alumni each year.

The awards honor alumni of the college for exceptional professional achievements and extraordinary distinction in their fields.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the Spring 2024 University of Arkansas Commencement ceremony a success.
Commencement Speaker

Jim McClelland

Jim McClelland is a native of Fayetteville and received his Bachelor of Science in civil engineering from the U of A in 1967. While at the University, he enjoyed being a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, a Razorback, cheerleader, and president of the American Society of Civil Engineers student chapter. He was later inducted into Tau Beta Pi and Chi Epsilon engineering fraternities.

His 50-plus year career has included work as a consultant and civil engineer for projects across Arkansas serving architects, cities, counties, state and federal government agencies. He worked for 10 years for Mehlburger Engineers in Little Rock and then opened the Little Rock office of McClelland Consulting Engineers in 1977. He became CEO in 1986 and led the company for 23 years until his retirement in 2009. During his entire professional career, he has endeavored to elevate the value of engineers and their services through civic involvement and project development.

Jim has been very involved as head of numerous civic and engineering organizations over the years, including the Arkansas Society of Professional Engineers, Little Rock Engineers Club, Arkansas Department of Health Board of Directors, Arkansas State Board of Licensure for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors, Old State House Museum Associates and the Riverbend Property Owners Association. Jim currently serves on the Arkansas Children’s Hospital Foundation Board of Directors and is a 20-year volunteer and docent at the Clinton Presidential Library in Little Rock.

Jim’s alumni involvement with the U of A College of Engineering began over 20 years ago, having served for many years on the Dean’s Advisory Council, now as an emeritus member. He was the engineering co-chairman for the fundraising campaign Campaign Arkansas and was a member of the Campaign for the 21st Century. He was very involved in the development of the Grady E. Harvell Civil Engineering Research and Education Center on the U of A campus.

He is a life member of the Arkansas Alumni Association and a member of the Towers of Old Main. As a result of their support and involvement with the university, Jim and his wife, Patricia Finley McClelland, were awarded the U of A Chancellor’s Medal in 2021. Jim’s most prized honor is having been inducted into the College of Engineering Hall of Fame alongside his late father in 2022.

For the past 27 years, Jim has led the McClelland Endowed Scholarship Program, which honors his parents and has benefited more than 60 engineering students. He and Pat live in Fayetteville and have two sons and two grandchildren.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the Spring 2024 University of Arkansas Commencement ceremony a success.
J.K. Symancyk became President and CEO of PetSmart, and a member of the company’s board of directors, in June 2018. As a veteran in the consumer retail industry with more than 25 years of experience managing complex retail operations, he is a transformational leader – both in improving organizational performance and in team culture by nurturing talent and developing leaders.

Starting his career as a seasonal associate in a Walmart distribution center, Symancyk moved to the home office where he served in several leadership roles for both Sam's Club and Walmart.

In 2006, he joined Meijer – a supercenter chain throughout the Midwest – as Group Vice President and held increasingly more responsible positions before being promoted to President in 2012. In 2015, Symancyk was named President & Chief Executive Officer of Academy Sports + Outdoors. With his focus on building a strong leadership team and new strategy including expanding its proprietary brands, the company successfully posted return on growth and was set up for an eventual IPO.

At PetSmart, Symancyk continues to be a transformational leader, overseeing North America's leading pet retailer resulting in increased market share, significant growth in revenue and improved associate engagement. With his leadership, PetSmart has extended its commitment to belonging, diversity and inclusion as well as its investment in training and benefits for all associates. He currently serves as Chairman of PetSmart Charities, which is the leading funder of animal welfare in communities across North America and is a member of the Retail Industry Leaders Board of Directors and the Bath & Body Works Board of Directors.

Symancyk graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, where he serves on the Dean's Executive Advisory Board for the Sam M. Walton College of Business. An avid supporter of students, he and his family have generously invested in the University's Student Success Center and established the Symancyk Family Advance Arkansas Scholarship at the Walton College.
